Dear Fellow Art Lovers.

As a collector of Native American art for the past 30 years in Montana, I have had the opportunity to watch as Crow artist Rabbit Knows Gun has honed his craft to a very sharp edge. From early paintings such as “Blessed Miraculous Visitation on Creation”, that captured a moment in time rarely viewed by others, to his most recent work titled “Grand Teton Summer Camp”, Rabbit continues to evolve as a highly skilled and talented professional.

“Grand Teton Summer Camp” is a breathtaking and awe inspiring work that beckons the viewer to go back in time when life was about living in peace and harmony with Nature. This painting makes me think not only of the Majestic Tetons, but also stirs my memory of beautiful sites such as Yosemite and Yellowstone. This work showcases the skills and creativity of a Master at his Craft, developed over a lifetime of diligent and dedicated work.

The longer you possess a creation of Rabbit’s, the more you notice content in the painting that mirrors Nature and the real world itself. This makes Rabbits work timeless and a work of art that keeps your interest forever.
